Every Performance Photo print is individually analyzed, cropped and toned before digital printing on premium photo paper. These high-quality, custom prints are shipped in a protective folder. However, any photo will last longer if matted, framed under glass, and displayed away from direct sunlight. Action, concert and stage photos are taken under a variety of conditions and we cannot ensure the same level of color and sharpness that you'd expect from a studio photo. We promise you'll be happy with your pictures. If you're not, we'll either replace them at no charge or give you a full refund (9.1.09)
